PERSONAL BOUNDARIES

What are boundaries?

My body is mine.

I have the right to say "No" if anyone touches me in a way that makes me feel uncomfortable.

(Coaches to explain further what personal boundary is.)

I must immediately RUN from that uncomfortable situation.

SAFE AND UNSAFE PEOPLE

Some safe people I can trust:

Trusted adults

Teachers/coaches

My other family members.

SAFE AND UNSAFE PEOPLE

As a child, who can I trust?

There are always adults I can go to (including my coach) if I feel uncomfortable or uneasy about someone.

As a child I am not helpless and alone.

SAFE AND UNSAFE PEOPLE

Some unsafe people may include:

strangers

Some people I already know can also be an unsafe person to me.

SAFE BEHAVIOUR AND UNSAFE BEHAVIOUR

- As a child, I must stay in groups and stay near trusted adults,
- I must be cautious if I am alone with someone.
- Even if someone I know or trust tries to make me do something inappropriate, it's still wrong and I must not allow that.
- I must not take gifts, toffees, etc., from strangers or people who try to touch me.

SOME WAYS I CAN PROTECT MYSELF

- + I have the right to say “NO” to any touch or situation that feels unsafe.
- + If someone crosses my personal boundary, no matter who the person is, I must speak up and not be shy or afraid.
- + I must always report any inappropriate behavior to a trusted adult.
